The Honorable James R. Schlesinger
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Dr. Schlesinger:

As you may know, it has been customary for The Business Council to invite the head of the Central Intelligence Agency to its meetings in Hot Springs, Virginia, and we have enjoyed over the years a very close association with your many predecessors. In most recent years, Dick Helms and his nice wife Cynthia have been regular attendees at all of our meetings and have always thoroughly enjoyed them.

I would, therefore, like to pass on a very cordial invitation from Dave Packard to you and Mrs. Schlesinger to be guests of The Business Council when it meets from May 10th through May 12th at The Homestead in Hot Springs, Virginia.

These weekend sessions are a unique mixture of formal dinners, morning business sessions, informal receptions, with time left over for tennis, golf, or any of the other recreational activities at The Homestead.

We are planning what we think is an especially interesting program and will include among our guests and speakers quite a number of Cabinet, sub-Cabinet, and other high-level officials.

Perhaps Mr. Helms may have already briefed you on these meetings. Hopefully, you will feel that it is something you would find both enjoyable and meaningful.

I know that it would be a special pleasure for The Business Council members and wives to have you and Mrs. Schlesinger with
